CODES

One day me and my best friend Priya went on a excursion to Sunny Hill Farm. The farmer was a really nice man called mr Dawson. He said we could feed the goats. I was really excited.

The biggest goat was called Biscuit. He was brown. He had a beard. He had very big horns. When Priya open the gate to give him some hay, he run straight past her and he went across the field and then he went through the vegetable patch and then he went into the barn.

stop that goat yelled Mr Dawson. We chased Biscuit everywhere. He grabbed Mr Dawsons hat and started chewing it. where is he going now said Priya. He's going to the café I said.

Biscuit trotted into the café and jumped onto a table. He gobbled a sandwich a muffin and a banana. The café lady was angry.

In the end we got Biscuit back into his pen. Mr Dawson said we could of lost him forever. It was a good day.

It was a dark and stormy night when I found the box. Nana sent me up to the attic to get the christmas decorations. The attic was very scary.

The box was under a old blanket in the corner. It was small. It was wooden. It had a gold lock. I tried to open it but it was locked so I looked everywhere for the key and I looked in the cupboard and under the rug and then I found it inside a old boot.

Inside the box their was a map. It had a red X on it and some writing I couldnt read.

nana come up here I shouted. Nana climbed the stairs. what did you find she said. A map I said.

Nana looked at the map for a long time. She was surprised. Your great-grandad drawed this when he was a boy she said. He always said there was treasure buried in the garden.

The next morning we went outside with a shovel a torch and Nanas old compass. We digged and digged. Then the shovel hit something hard.

BANG! The race started and I dived into the pool. The water was really cold.

It was the final of the 50 metre freestyle at the swimming carnival. I was in lane four. Mia was in lane five. Mia was the fastest swimmer in our school and she had won every race that year.

I swam as fast as I could. At the wall I turn and push off and I could see Mias feet in front of me and I knew I had to go faster. My coach was on the side of the pool. go go go he yelled. My friends was cheering and jumping up and down.

I was very tired. My arms felt like they was going to fall off. Then I touched the wall. who won I asked the judge. you did she said.

Me and Mia looked at each other. I was so happy. Mia said good race. I said thanks you were really good too. i got a gold medal. It was a really good day.
